LOCAL EVENTS

Events may be subject to change, depending on government guidelines and restrictions.

Dursley Farmers' Market

Look out for the Farmers' Market on the second Saturday of every month, under the Market Hall. Currently "click & collect" but hoping to be back to normal soon. Check FB: dursleyfarmersmarket to see what's happening and place your orders. #newprepaidandcollectionservice
Delicious locally produced foods: bread, cheese, cakes, jams and chutneys, local honey, brownies, Welsh cakes and quails' eggs.

Dursley Walking Festival

Dursley's 9th annual Walking Festival starts on Wednesday 7 October with a full programme of walks each day to Sunday 11 October.

Walks vary from easy to strenuous and distances range from 1.5 miles to 14 miles. Enjoy a stroll on the Art Walk or a longer hike around the undulating hills and valleys of the Lantern Way.

The ever-popular Heritage Walk explores Dursley's historic nooks and crannies. The Severn Views Walk provides excellent views of the river valley, the Cotswold escarpment, Gloucester Cathedral, the Malverns and the Forest of Dean. For the less energetic, enjoy a gentle stroll to gather apples for pressing to make your own juice (or cider!)

Covid regulations will be carefully observed. All walks must be pre-booked.
<https://dursleywalkfest.btck.co.uk/> email: dursleywaw@gmail.com

Friday 2 to Sunday 4 October, Tyndale Arts Week Exhibition. FB: tyndaleartsweek
Showcasing the best work from local artists and makers from the local area, including painters, photographers, sculptors and workers in textiles, ceramics, glass, mosaics and more. Works will be exhibited in shared venues in and around the town.

Friday 23 October, 7.30 - 9pm: Quiz Night. Stinchcombe Village Hall. FB: StinchcombeVillageHall.

Saturday 31 October, all afternoon: Festive Dursley Hallowe'en Maze under the Market Hall - with socially distanced children's activities. Enter your carved pumpkin in the competition. See FB: FestiveDursley

Saturday 7 November: Dursley Fireworks - event under review. Look out for posters.

Saturday 14 November, from 10am: Craft Fayre all day in Stinchcombe Village Hall.

Friday 27 November: Festive Dursley Christmas: A Winter Wonderland with virtual choirs and bands, a Winter Wonderland Garden in the town centre, festive window display competition, children's town centre trail, and much more. A live stream of the Christmas Lights switch-on at 6pm with virtual fireworks and a virtual message from Father Christmas. Santa's Grotto on Saturday 28 November. See FB: FestiveDursley

Saturday 6 December: Christmas Craft Fair at Kingshill House. Browse a wonderful array of handmade goods and buy those special gifts for friends and family. Try your hand at blowing your own glass baubles (booking required). www.kingshillhouse.org.uk/events
